Adaptability
Initiative
Self-Reliance
Teamwork
Respect

Bonjour! I'm a Montreal-based transgender artist whose work focuses on Character Design, Illustration and Toy Design. Using both digital and traditional techniques, I create expressive artwork and I easily emulate diverse art styles, making me adaptable for any project. My long lasting love for musical theatre, fashion dolls and gothic fiction culminates into an adorable, but vibrant art style that retains a penchant for drama and costumed characters.
